WIFE IN COURT DENIES CHARGES MADE BY MOYER

Unjustifiable Impressions of a Jealous Husband, Her

Counsel Says.

New York, for the custody of his sevenyear-old daughter, Margaret Benson Moyer mansion at No. 324 Ridgewood road, South Orange, was on in earnest before Vice-Chance for Howell at Newark, N. J., to-day.

Mrs. Moyer's conduct while on a European trip, Moyer alleges, compelled enough to know that we love indehim to leave home and formed the basis of a suit for divorce, in which he named two co-respondents, one a medical student and the other an artist. He also began an acton to obtain custody of the child, and that phase of the case came up last Tuesday, our Vice-Chancellor Howell at the request of Mrs. Moyer's counsel adjourned the hearing until to-

Sherrerd Depue, counsel for Mrs. Moyer, announced that his client was not at this time prepared to present justifiable impressions of an angry and icalous husband."

One of the letters attached to the bill of complaint, which Moyer hopes will aid him in proving that his wife is not a fit person to have the custody of their daughter, is as follows:
"Lake Placid, N. Y., Aug. 30, 1905.

"My Dear Albert: Your love for me does not make up for any conduct you may choose to exhibit to the other person. That you are unjustly or at least trying to curtail his liberty, to which The legal battle begun by Albert every person has a right, is apparent, Moyer, a wealthy cement dealer, of and that such action is an insult to your wife is plain to any one and humiliating to me, and no one ever made me feel so without my full disgust and hatred, and Moyer, who is at present with her you will be no exception. In the face of mother, Flora Howard Moyer, in the such acts I don't feel that I owe you anything, but I do feel that I owe myself something, and I will live and be free in spite of you.

Gives Him Warning. "You know the Howard nature well

Spear's Trust---Your Trust

TRUST is simply the old-fashioned name for CREDIT-and in givin CREDIT Spear simply the old-fashioned name for CREDIT—and in giving CREDIT Spear simply goes back to the old-fashioned principle of TRUST. During our many years of experience we have never had reason to regret extending Credit Accommodations to the public; in nine'y-nine cases out of a hundred their WORD has been as GOOD as a GOVERNMENT BOND, and as WE have trusted the PEOPLE so have they trusted US; it was the only thing to do if men and women were to live in COMFORTABLY FURNISHED HOMES in these modern times. It would be ridiculous to deny men in moderate circumstances the privileges of buying home furnishings because they had no FINANCIAL STANDING in a mercantile agency.

If you have never been a customer we invite you to come in and investigate SPEAR'S CREDIT SYSTEM. If then you feel that he is asking of you anything that a SELF-RESPECTING, DIGNIFIED man or woman cannot accept, you have a right to withhold your patronage. But don't PREJUDGE without

TO LONDON FOR RELIEF.

LONDON, Oct. 15 .-- A body of the unemployed is marching to-day from Not-unemployed also at Sunderland and Maidstone.

The recent demonstrations by the unemployed in Great Britain brought about one result to-day rather out of the ordinary; this was the issuing of a writ against William James Thorne, Social Democratic Member of Parliament from the Southern division of West Ham, for inciting to a breach of of the peace by making a speech in which he advised the unemployed to "rush" the baker shops rather than starve.
